REPORT FROM THE WGM ON THE WASHINGTON DC TRIP

There were thirteen hardy souls that left for Washington DC on Oct 20th. Planes left early in the morning so we were all up before the sun. We started our trip at Monticello in Charlottesville, VA. What a wonderful way to start! The building is magnificent and the grounds were beautiful. We were back in Washington DC on Sunday night. Saw so many sights it's hard to remember them all (thank heaven for cameras). On Tuesday we went to a Grand Visitation of Friendship Chapter #17. We had a wonderful time; they were very warm and welcoming and it was a very interesting meeting. Their Grand Visitation is nothing like our official visits. We all left with our heads spinning. When you see me next, ask me about the visit. It rained for three days, but it didn't dampen our spirits at all. We had a marvelous driver and fantastic tour guide. We saw a lot of Washington DC and walked 200 miles. We ended our trip at Mount Vernon and the day turned sunny and warm. A wonderful way to end the trip. We all had a marvelous time and learned a lot and had tons of FUN. However, we are all really glad to be home.
